ADMINISTRATION AGENDA – MAYOR AND COUNCIL BUSINESS; STAFF COMMENTS: ■Mayor – Travis Humphreys is the artist that has the new pictures on the wall are his. Paul read Travis' bio. "Travis Humphreys is always creating. He believes life is better with art. From a very young age he was introduced to all kinds of media for his creative freedom. He was never very confined as he grew up in Idaho and Arizona. He grew up in an artistic family. In high school he was good enough for the teacher to ask him for classes but he knew she was mostly joking. Still, he did have sell out shows in high school and got full ride scholarships in Art. He got is first gallery invite in 1988 by the Wickenburg (Arizona) Gallery. That same year he won 2nd place in Watercolor at the George Phippen Memorial Art Show in Prescott, AZ. A landscape painter for over 40 years, he has a BFA in illustration from BYU. He and his family reside west of Cedar City, Utah. They continue to operate Gold River Gallery, a master frame company where they manufacture museum quality frames for artists and dealers in 40 states". There will be an artist reception on July 15th from 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. ■Melling – I got my water bill yesterday, one of the concerns with rate adjustments was indoor versus outdoor water, our family we were at 4,000 in the winter, 8,000 is considered indoor use. Even though our swamp cooler isn't state of the art, we had it running very cold all June we are in the middle of sprinkler repairs, we are at 7,000 gallons for the month, that is adequate for 3,000 square feet of turf. It was a good. Hartley – I had a neighbor say they will have to sell a kidney to pay their water bill this year. ■Phillips – I
